

Should We Trust the Sky News Trust?

By Damian Tambini

The DCMS has announced a quick consultation on whether proposed undertakings – effectively spinning off Sky News and a separate independent board – address the Plurality concerns that threaten to block the proposed merger between BSkyB and News Corporation. The consultation documents are here. http://www.culture.gov.uk/news/news_stories/7883.aspx

You will have to be quick. Responses are due by 21 March.
