Slate.com's new online video site is quite good, if you like that rather smooth, liberal, clever-dick approach that they take to politics. (I do). The videos are intelligent and well made for online viewing and actually have something to say. It's not reinventing IPTV as we know it and it's not very interactive, but it's..well, it's er, quite good.
