I thought MPs were bad enough but now it emerges that leading lights in our judiciary don't understand the internet. A very serious terror trial was interrupted after the judge admitted he didn't know what a 'website' was. Answers on an email to

Mr Justice Peter Openshaw at Woolwich Crown Court please along with the answers to:

What is the internal combustion engine?

How many hundreds of thousands of pounds do I get paid to sit on this bench?
